

PINSEEKERS JUL 10, 2018

By Jack Bindon

The weather was absolutely perfect this Tuesday morning and we witnessed a grouping of scores. Martin needs to get a firm grip on the treasury, lots of ties. Our winners were:

First place went to Jack Bindon with a nice 32 net.

Second place resulted in a three-way tie between Chet Purcell, John Eige, and Roy Wash with sub par 35s.

Third place provided another three-way tie between Frank Garcia, Tim Short, and Horio Leighton with even par 36.

Fourth place provided a four-way tie Between Richard Petroski, Tak Okabe, Bill Crill, and Bob Gregg with one over par 37.

When you have eleven winners out of a field of 18 players it means the competition is getting fierce, and the season is only about half over.....Good going everyone!
